Purity is the quality or state of being pure

What is pure?

- As we already demonstrated, the word "Pure" has several definitions.
- In the context of this saga, pure means more than transparent or clean of spirit. It means that our beings are total, completely innocent and without hidden selfish agendas.
- To be pure means that everything we think, do or say is crystal clear and aligned with God's love, without anything that is harmful. It is accompanied with grace.
- To be pure in the current times means to elevate all our actions and emotions with unclouded pure love that comes from God.
- When our hearts are full of pure love, all our thoughts and actions reflect our "tank full of love". We replenish our love tanks by loving God with all our soul, as much as we love others and ourselves.
- To be pure requires the "pure love" factor, the most important virtue of all. This "love" virtue will be explored next week.

Purity of the heart will be explained in three levels:. At the fraternal level. At the community level. At the romantic relationship level.

At the Fraternal Level

- At the fraternal level is our state of purity in our thinking and behavior (actions) towards those who are associated with us in a family context (parent brotherlike, sisterly, or blood kinship-family) or a friendship or acquaintance or group of people joined together under a congenial way.
- At the fraternal level, no sexual interaction is involved at all.
- Friendships at school, college, universities or churches are a demonstration of fraternal relationships.
- When friendships or family relationships are based on people who hold "Purity of heart" virtue, these are warm and comforting, they know each other, respect, like and trust no matter what.
- That is why to have real friends is one of the most difficult things on earth: it takes years of time and experience to learn how to be a friend "with a pure heart".
- The virtue of "purity of the heart" with friends or relatives is only acquired by constant training or exercising them in actions. "It is the way that we behave in our dealings with them" that make us reach a "Pure heart".

Purity of the heart will be explained in three levels:. At the fraternal level. At the community level. At the romantic relationship level

At the Community Level

- At the community level, our state of purity of the heart is expressed in our thinking and behavior (actions) towards those who are part of our social community.
- A community is a group of people living in the same locality, under the same type of rulers or government. A community, geographically has boundaries. It can be a small-rural community, or a neighborhood or a urban district. Also it can be an association whose members share common interests, work, associations or own a property collectively.
- The purity of the heart at a community level is expressed in true and good actions that overflow from each and all the members of the community, where no "hidden selfish agendas" for the self-interests of some are privileged.
- The love expressed that overflows from pure hearts members of a community are shown in acts of assistance or aid actions which are "wordless".
- When members of a community have a "pure heart", their wordless actions of community service are given without any type of reward searching, no suspicion attached, and no requests/demands are necessary. Actions are not masked by self-interests, but for the "community" interests.

Purity of the heart will be explained in three levels:. At the fraternal level. At the community level. At the romantic relationship level

At the romantic relationship level

- When it comes to a romantic relationship level between a man and a woman, the purity of the heart is also expressed in actions.
- Purity of heart at a couple level is more than a sexual experience. It refers primarily to single-mindedness, wholeness, integrity expressed in actions and unity of two hearts involved in a relationship.
- When God and Jesus-Christ are in the center of a love relationship, the love of God overflows in the couple: it is pure, clear, simple, undiluted, and sex is a medium to love purely to each other.
- When a man and a woman are engaged to build a "pure heart", even through disillusionments, crisis and problems that may arise, two characteristics that overflow from "pure hearts" are grace and forgiveness.
- A pure heart doesn't focus on getting something he/she wants, but in "doing something" for the well being of the loved one.
- In marriage "purity of heart" has at least 5 emotional love languages: words of affirmation, quality time, gifting, helping acts and physical touch.

Pure love is an incomparable, potent power for good. Righteous love is the foundation of a successful marriage.

Purity of the heart is not given when we are born, it is also reached by practice. And must be guarded and protected through all our life

Purity of The Heart

When your heart is pure and your intentions sincere, the Almighty has a way of making sure that everything works out for you.

- Actions from a pure heart are not built in automatic mood. They require practice to come out naturally.
- As much as visual artists get better by painting constantly, or builders become excellent by building or musicians by playing instruments, a pure heart becomes as such by performing acts of “purity of the heart”. It is the way that we behave in our dealings with other people (at a fraternal, community or intimate level) that we learn to become transparent and without selfish agendas.
- It requires discipline in the training of our intentions: so that we can do what needs to be done when it needs to be done. The inner force to be pure in our feelings and thoughts and actions, requires a will of Spirit that only comes from God. Without God’s love and his spiritual strength, it is impossible to “purify our hearts”.
- If God reigns in our hearts, we are able to easily discern when does lust takes place, and why do we have to get rid of anything else that is not pure and full of unveiling love.

Purity of the heart happens when we are aligned with God and Jesus-Christ values. My personal own comments below:

Purity of the heart

- When it comes to purity hearts at a romantic relationship level: God has made us perfectly woman or perfectly man to complement our partner of the opposite sex.
- Biologically, there is not a "in between". No additional selfish genders, but only to be a man, or to be a woman. In romance, pure hearts wait for marriage and don't trespass the sex boundaries until matrimony happens.
- A pure heart marriage is only feasible between a man and a woman.
- Same sex intimate relationships are not an "expression" of having a pure heart. All the current "modern sex" modalities are an expression of human "dehumanization". Or "animalization" based only in lust-driven seduction, "masked" under love, but in reality end up only in void and emptiness alone.
- Marriage between a man and a woman is the "institution" created to complete intimacy. The utmost power of love-making to give and receive love (at a romantic level) only happens "purely" in marriage between a man and a woman, and when both have reached the level of "pure hearts".

Purity of the heart when it comes to a romantic relationship means "A true love waits" promise.
